

Cultural activities provide the chance to develop skills beyond reading and writing. They help students acquire new skills that can be applied to their lives, such as leadership, teamwork, collaboration, and problem-solving, which prepare them for school life.

The main goal of cultural activities is making a student social. As most of the activities involve a group of students, they make the student a team player. Also, they teach the students to coordinate with his team mates.

